

History of the Catholic Church from the Renaissance to the French Revolution: Volume 1

History of the Catholic Church from the Renaissance to the French Revolution: Volume 1

By Rev. James MacCaffrey (1875 - 1935)

This first volume of a two volume set traces the trials and triumphs of the Catholic Church during the period before the reformation up to the 19th century. The origins, causes and developments of the various protestant sects that were the fruit of the reformation are studied in depth, as well as the men, schools of thought and movements within and without the Church that influenced this important time period in Church history.
